

Dr. Bülent Ülkar

Dr. Bülent Ülkar is a sports medicine specialist and is currently working as a fulltime professor at Ankara University School of Medicine, Sports Medicine Department. His main areas of interest are sports traumatology and rehabilitation, injury prevention and pre-participation examinations, promotion of physical activity for preventive medicine. Dr. Ülkar was a member of FIMS (International Federation of Sports Medicine) Education Commission between 2006-2014. He is a member of EFSMA (European Federation of Sports Medicine Associations) Scientific and Education Commission since 2014 and a member of Turkish Sports Medicine Association since 1993 and served as a member of scientific and education commissions, and as an executive board member between 2006 and 2008. Currently, he is the president of Turkish Sports Medicine Association Executive Board.

Dr. Ülkar has published many scientific articles, chapters in books and scientific presentations in national and international meetings. He is the Editor-in Chief of Turkish Journal of Sports Medicine.